

Please do not allow wireless telephone companies to hold me hostage by forcing me to remain with their service if I wish to keep my current cellular phone number. I have portability in my home phone number, I should have portability in my cell phone. Many other countries have this option, so please force the companies into cellular phone number portability.
Thank you.